

CRNA

Parish Management Consultants, LLC Baton Rouge, Louisiana

Sign on Bonus and Student Stipend available

JOB SUMMARY:

Maintains the Performance Standards and Guidelines of the Anesthesia Practice. Provides for the delivery of appropriate administration of anesthesia care of the infant through geriatric patient, utilizing the anesthesia process. Provides professional assessment, documentation, anesthesia administration, observation, and resuscitation for the peri-operative patient until control of vital functions is regained.

EDUCATION, EXPERIENCE & TRAINING:

CRNA's are licensed as advanced practice registered nurses and are certified nationally in the specialty of anesthesia. They are educated to induce, maintain, reverse general anesthesia, provide intravenous sedation of MAC anesthesia, start arterial lines, external jugular vein central lines, provide intravenous regional anesthesia, monitor and perform regional anesthesia, provide emergency respiratory care and intubations in ICU, PACU, Emergency Department, and any other patient care areas.

LICENSE, CERTIFICATIONS & CREDENTIALS:

CRNA's are required to maintain a current RN and Advanced Practice License in the state of Louisiana. Must maintain BLS/ACLS certification. The CRNA must be credentialed by the Clinical Facility Allied Health.

Industry

Hospital & Health Care

Employment Type

Full-time with benefits.

If interested please email CV to bain@pmcno.com.